Sub: Disclosure under Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligation and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015

Dear Sir / Ma'am,

The Company received certain data leakage post' alerts via email from its dark-web monitoring partner on February 27, 2025, informing of unauthorised access of our clients' data. After analysing the post, it was ascertained that some of Angel One's AWS resources were compromised.

In order to contain the impact, the Company has immediately changed all related credentials of its AWS cloud and other applications.

We value the data privacy of our clients and as an immediate measure, we have engaged an external forensic partner to validate and investigate the impact of this incident and its thorough root cause analysis. We have verified that this breach does not have any impact on clients securities, funds and credentials; and all our client accounts remain secure.

We continue to investigate this further to assess its potential impact, if any, and are making this disclosure as a matter of good governance.

We will take utmost care to handle concerns of our clients and take actions to safeguard their interest.

This is for your information.

Thanking you,

For Angel One Limited
